

Sharon D. Cipolla

March 24, 1951 - August 6, 2015

Sharon D. Cipolla
(nee Dooley)

Sharon Cipolla , age 64, passed peacefully from this life on August 6th, 2015, at her home in Carneys Point, NJ.

Sharon had battled many chronic health problems, but remained a ray of light to her family and friends. She was a talented artist who loved motorcycles, snow, and all things Christmas. She was happiest when spending time with her family - her daughter, her son-in-law and her beloved granddaughter were the light of her world.

Sharon was preceded in death by her father Admas Dooley, her beloved brother Robert L. Dooley and her long-time companion William Emanuel. She is survived by her daughter Kelly Verdecchio, son-in-law Thomas Verdecchio, and her precious granddaughter Mya, as well as her sister-in-law Debra Dooley, nephew Sean Dooley, niece Heather Pratz and her mother Geraldine Dooley.

Visitation will be held at Ashcraft Funeral Home, 740 S. Broadway, Pennsville on Friday, September 18th from 6pm to 7pm, followed by a memorial service at 7pm. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a donation to Sharon's favorite charity, St. Jude's Children's Hospital, www.stjude.org.

“ The loss of Sharon is such a void in my life. As a cousin I had never met in person, to someone I grew to admire and love. I have such sweet memories of all the stories and and things we shared being part of a very interesting family. Kelly, I know that you and your sweet family were the most important people in her life. With Mya the best gift she ever recieved. God Bless You and Tommy and Mya.

“ Sharon was a good friend of mine on Facebook, we shared our health problems, our love of snow and Christmas and most of all our love for our Grandchildren. Her Squirrel was her life and everyone on Facebook knew that. I will miss her very much and miss her stories about her precious granddaughter and all that they shared together <3
