

Theodoros Roustopoulos

June 27, 1954 - February 29, 2024

Theodoros Roustopoulos passed away at home in Swedesboro, New Jersey surrounded by his family after a two-year, hard-fought battle with cancer. True to his unique character, his loved ones were met by no surprise that the date of his passing fell on February 29, 2024--a leap day.

Theo was born on June 27, 1954, to a young, widowed mother, Triantafilia Roustopoulos, and was raised with his older sister, Eleni, in Thessaloniki, Greece. Theo was proud of his humble beginnings in Thessaloniki, which shaped and defined his unique character everyone grew to know and adore. At the age of seven, he started working as a busboy at the local coffee shop to help support his mother and sister. He moved on to become a hotel bellhop, a taxicab driver, a waiter, an electric company technician, and, ultimately, the owner of several businesses in a foreign land. In his early adult years, he also played professional volleyball for his favorite club team, Iraklis.

At age 30, what was intended to be a short vacation to the US turned into a lifetime with his forever love, Alexia Kotanidis. He learned to love the United States as his new adoptive home but made it a point to never forget where he came from. Above of all else, he cherished the moments with his family and seized every opportunity to visit his homeland with his children.

Theo will be remembered for his loyalty, integrity, grit, and so much more than an obituary can capture. He is survived by his loving wife Alexia and wonderful children Tony, Theo, and Eleni.

A memorial service will be held at Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church in Wilmington Delaware on Tuesday, March 5, 2024, at 11:00 am with a visitation from 10 am-11 am. Burial will follow at Silverbrook Cemetery in Wilmington, Delaware.

“ Alexia, I am so sorry to hear the news of Theo. He was such a great guy. I remember what I think was your first date when Lisa and I went with you two to Philly and you drank nothing but "Ice Tea"...from Long Island. I have so many fond memories of Theo, truly one of the nicest guys I have ever known.
