

Thomas Edwin Coulbourn

February 18, 1952 - March 6, 2026

Thomas Edwin Coulbourn, 74, longtime resident of Deepwater, died suddenly on March 6th, 2026. He was born in Salem in 1952 to Edward Coulbourn Jr. and Faye Wingler.

When he wasn't busy in the yard or working on household projects, he could usually be found picking up scrap, hunting for treasures to sell, or visiting friends. For everyone who knew him, the sight of his truck packed with stuff is a familiar memory. A lifelong lover of old cars, he spent years driving and restoring countless models. Later in life, he took great joy in riding his scooter and always looked forward to the Alloway Parade.

Tom was preceded in death by his parents, Edward B. Jr. and Faye (Wingler) , and his brother, Brian K. He is survived by his four children: Thomas E. (Kristy) Muntz, Jeffrey S., Philip J., and Kaylee M.; three grandchildren; and two sisters, Judy A. Snyder and Joyce A. Hildebrand

A viewing will be held at Ashcraft Funeral Home, 740 S. Broadway, Pennsville, NJ 08070, on March 14 from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM, followed by a funeral service at 11:00 AM.
