

Thomas C. Sebell Jr.

January 19, 1963 - September 19, 2023

Thomas Sebell, resident of Pennsville, has passed away. Tommy (as he was known by) was born in Salem, NJ on January 19, 1963. He was a graduate of Pennsville Memorial High School.

Tommy was predeceased by his parents, Tom and Bonnie (Page) Sebell. He is survived by his son, TJ (Jen), grandchildren, Alyssa, Zach, Devon, and Carly, sister Terri, brother Jimmy (Danielle), niece Alex, nephew Andrew (Bekah), and ex-wife Robin. Tommy enjoyed his motorcycle and taking his grandchildren out four-wheeling. Some may not know, but Tommy was an author. He wrote the book "BI-POLAR POEMS". Tommy loved his family, and always said that he would protect his pack. He called himself the Silverback. Sadly bi-polar disease was too much for him to overcome. He fought a hard battle and is at peace.

“ Tom was mis understood by many. Although he could be a challenge at times he had a good heart and would give the shirt off his back to help a friend if needed. It will always bother me that he died the way he did, alone in the woods with no one to help him, but Tom was independent minded and would rarely ask anyone for help. Rest in peace brother, see you on the other side, wherever that may be

“ Tom was a good person and unfortunately his disease took the best of him I had a good 20 years with him. Thank goodness he's at rest with himself. To the Sebell family my prayers and thoughts are with you.

To the entire Sebell family,are heart breaks for your family! Our deepest sympathy 🙏😞 to all of you. It's very difficult to deal with disease and understand it all. Unfortunately sometimes it gets the best of someone that is close to you. Just know you are not alone and he's at peace and not suffering no longer. May your family find peace and comfort in the coming days ahead.
