

Tracy Lynn Dybus

August 31, 1963 - September 15, 2020

Tracy Lynn Dybus, age 57, formerly of Pennsville & Deepwater, NJ passed away September 15, 2020. She was the daughter of Stanley Dybus and the late Mary Dybus (nee Dunn). Tracy's family described her as a loving, carefree, independent, energetic and loving mom who always had them laughing. If she wanted something, she knew just how to get it, such as the time she borrowed money from her mom's friend to buy a horse without permission for the horse or the money. Tracy was free-spirited and never had to look for trouble. She loved her family and friends with all her heart. Her grandkids and "Poo" (her dog) were the highlight of her life and meant the world to her. Throughout her many years of waitressing the customers often said that her kind words would lift their spirits and make them feel better, to her that was better than money. Seems like all who knew her had an unbelievable Tracy story to recall with laughter and heartfelt love.

Tracy is survived by her son, Adam L. Warren (Jess) of Clarksville, TN, her daughter Tonya A. Warren "Punky" of Naples, FL. Along with her grandsons: Tristin Gale and Avreey Gale, granddaughters: Alyssa Warren, Jayda Warren, Jasmine Harvey, Trinity Harvey, Ariela Warren, Janessa Warren and Nancy Warren. Also, her father Stanley Dybus, sister Cathy Buckingham (nee Ludlam) and husband Jack Jr, brother Dennis Dybus, nephew Jack Buckingham III and niece Jamie Buckingham.

In addition to her mother, Tracy was predeceased by her beloved daughter Ronacy Dybus "Nace" (2019) who she called her "Diamond Girl", they were two peas in a pod. Also, her French Bulldog “Poo” whom her kids thought she loved more than them.

The family would like to thank Tracy’s friends Gail Schade and Cindy Simpson for their love and support during good times and bad over the years, especially when her daughter, Nace, passed.

Donations can be made to American Cancer Society, PO Box 22478, Oklahoma City, OK 73123. Services will be private.
