August 10, 1963 - October 19, 2015

On October 19, 2015, William H. Savidge III, age 52 of Pennsville, NJ, lost his courageous battle with cancer. Bill was born on August 10, 1963 and grew up in Hatboro, PA. Bill is survived by his loving wife, Jean Savidge, mother, Dolores, sister and brother-in-law, Kathleen and Michael Carr, children, Erika, Victoria, Cassidy and Harrison, and step-children Jessica, Casey, Whitney and Josh, and niece and nephew Michaelena and Kevin. He was the proud grandfather of Kason, Abram, Alex, Annalise and Jenna.

Bill had a passion for rescuing animals and making sure they all found their “fur-ever” homes. He was also a passionate Eagles and Phillies fan and an avid golfer. He enjoyed vacationing in the Poconos and spending time with his family, friends and dogs.

All are invited to celebrate Bill’s life at a service on Saturday, October 24 at 10 am at Ashcraft Funeral Home, 740 S. Broadway, Pennsville, NJ 08070 and a visitation from 9am till 10am.

“ Bill, the escape from Stotesbury Mansion that you and I had back in the late 70's after the Cops came, and everyone scattered leaving you and I behind is legendary and still brings a chuckle to me til this day. It was a pleasure to reconnect with you again after all these years, sharing with each other our Animal Rescue adventures and stories. While sharing these stories with you, I realized that a lot of Dogs in your area got to see Love, Compassion, and Warmth from you and Jeannie bringing them into your home. Rest in Peace My Friend, and may your Family find Comfort in knowing that you were a Kind and Gentle Spirit.

“ Dear Bill,

I want to thank you for all the wonderful memories you have left. Not only with my children and family but with my mom especially.

You have me that true love really does exist and not to settle for any less. I will be forever in your debt to the countless smiles you brought to mom's face. You completed her and made her so happy.

Am awesome guy who's life was taken way to soon . Cancer sucks man!

Your light will live in all of us in your own unique way. I will remember you and be forever grateful for all the countless, fond memories my mom and children shared with you.

I promise to do my best to take care of mommy and leave you with no worries.

Now, let's get down to business, the eagles need to get to the super bowl and finally win... in your honor! Make it happen, Bill!!!! Shed your light on Chip Kelly and the eagles !

Love you Bill! Forever missed but never, ever forgotten !

“ Jean,

All of your friends at EASEL are so sorry for your loss. You and Bill were an example to us all. Your dedication to fostering dogs spoke volumes about the selfless compassion that you and Bill shared. Even when he was not feeling well, Bill kept at it. It was great to see him come out for training events, and to see the photos of him bonding with the fosters you invited into your home. He made a big difference in the lives of the fosters and the people who adopted. You both have a talent for this difficult work, and I am so glad that Bill was able to share his gift with EASEL. We were all fortunate to have known him.

“ I can't think of Bill without thinking of Jean. Such great times in Aruba - water, sun, dinners and night time karaoke on the beach (I could hear them singing from two hotels away). Of course, always specially concocted frosty drinks followed by more craziness. An Irishman said it best when he said:

*“Death leaves a heartache no one can heal
Love leaves a memory no one can steal”*

You will be missed Bill, but not forgotten. My heart breaks for you Jean.

I'm so very saddened to hear of your loss. Please know I'm thinking of you and your family with heartfelt sympathy. My prayer for you is that in time may God lift you from your sadness and put a little smile on your face whenever you think of a favorite memory and time with your beloved husband, Bill.

“ My Love. I cannot begin to imagine my life without you. We certainly made a wonderful life together . We shared 3 different homes in 3 different states. We invested lots of sweat equity in all three of those homes. From laying tile floors and sod, painting , waterproofing decks, spreading out 5 tons of stone (we danced in the driveway when we emptied the last shovel). Snow storms and candles lit when lights went out. Loved our rainy Sundays. Eagles , Phillies, Wrestling on TV. Our little cabin in the Poconos, dancing on the deck, our favorite movies, The Big Chill and Young Frankenstein. All the puppies and poop when we did overnights, how we fell in love with our fosters and cried when they were adopted. Aruba vacations, golfing with Ray and Robin, freezing cold nights in the hot tub, and oh how I'd love to dance with you one more time to Viva Las Vegas. I could go one forever. I loved you so much and I hope you knew exactly how deep I felt for you. Rest now my love. You deserve peace. All my love now and forever.

“ I never met you or your wonderful wife Jeannie. But I know that you will be missed by her and the rest of your family and the rescue family. Even while going through all this you both continued to foster and show love to others.
